EC Premier brings Early Christmas to the most vulnerable groups in the province

Christmas is coming early to the learners of eight schools and senior citizens of Chris Hani District of the Eastern Cape, thanks to Premier Nosimo Balindlela, who is building up to her birthday on 28 November by giving away food parcels in Cradock tomorrow Friday 23 November. She will give food parcels to older persons. Premier Balindlela will also be giving away school bags with stationery, water bottles and snack packs to 2330 learners of: Kude Kwalapha, Maqembe, Carinus and J.A. Ncaca Primary Schools of Cradock. The Premier will be accompanied by the Inxuba Yethemba Local Municipality Mayor, Councillor M.W. Zenzile. The Premier has also mandated Mayor Zenzile to proceed to Middleburg to extend the same gesture on her behalf to St Bonaface, Nonyaniso, Ellen Olivier, Van der Merwe and Rosmead Primary Schools. He will also visit and give food parcels to orphanages, children homes, and older persons in the area.

The media is invited to join the Premier.
