Busy Schedule for Premier Balindlela on her Birthday tomorrow

Eastern Cape Premier Nosimo Balindlela will get down to her service delivery work tomorrow, November 28, 2007 despite the fact that she should be relaxing at home celebrating her 58th birthday with family and friends. “My passion is to serve the people of this lovely province. I will celebrate my birthday by giving out gifts to the children and elderly people of the Nelson Mandela Bay tomorrow. This is one of a number of Christmas Giveaway events our government is rolling out in the province to assist our people, especially learners with basic school necessities, so that when schools re-open our kids can have the best start to the year, said Premier Balindlela.”

The Premier’s will hand out Gifts to learners at the following schools:

Walmer Primary School - 09h00
Sanctor Primary School – 11h00
Philip Nikiwe Primary School (Zwide) - 12h00
Sinethemba Children’s Home – Stanford Road – 13h00
Old Age Home in Zwide – 14h00

Premier Balindlela will then attend her Birthday Party at Victory Ministries, Stanford Road (Galvendale). The Business Sector is expected to make pledges towards Premier Balindlela’s Project of Hope. Championed by Premier Balindlela, Project of Hope is aimed at combining the strengths of government and private enterprises to bring better lives to the poor of the Eastern Cape. The Birthday Party will start at 18h00 and members of the media are invited to attend.
